The Cervantes Group rallies together for a great cause

Boston – October 18, 2022

Team CERVANTES was a Freedom Champions sponsor of the James W. Foley Freedom Run 2022 and became the 5th highest Team who donated to the run by rallying its coworkers to run in both live and virtual races on October 15th for a record breaking turn out. The collaborative efforts of each location set the tone for success by establishing location run routes in key cities in Boston, Chicago, San Francisco Bay area, San Juan as well as across the country of Mexico. This year Team CERVANTES reflected a lot of progress by gathering new members and receiving recognition for being the “A Top 5 Freedom Champion Sponsor. “It is a testament to our friends and families and company partners to all come together in such a collaborative effort. I am humbled by our team members who rallied behind this cause. He was an amazing friend, brother of mine and was an uncle to our children.” said Timothy Mullen, Co-Founder and Managing Partner.

CERVANTES as a company has been a supporter of the James Foley Foundation for the past 8 years by attending the yearly gala and supporting the Freedom Run since the foundations’ inception. “Foley will always be in all our hearts, minds and souls. He was an amazing friend. We miss him dearly. We were also happy to be able to run with John Foley, Jimmy’s brother, who came in town for the Chicago race.” states Joanna Bauza, President.
