The Cervantes Group Celebrates Recognition of Co-Founder Joanna Bauzá at the Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce’s “International Women Who Transcend and Leave a Legacy” Forum

Puerto Rico - March 5, 2026

San Juan, Puerto Rico – The Cervantes Group was honored to participate last Thursday in the “International Women Who Transcend and Leave a Legacy” forum, hosted by the Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce in celebration of International Women’s Month.

During the event, Joanna Bauzá, Co-founder and President of The Cervantes Group, received a special recognition for her outstanding professional trajectory and her lasting impact on the business and technology sectors.

Since co-founding The Cervantes Group in San Juan in 2004, Bauzá has played a pivotal role in transforming the company into the global IT consulting firm it is today, with operations across the United States, Mexico, and Europe. Her leadership, vision, and commitment to innovation have been key drivers behind the company’s continued growth and international success. The forum brought together prominent leaders and professionals from diverse industries to highlight the achievements of women whose contributions continue to inspire present and future generations.

The Cervantes Group extends its sincere appreciation to the Puerto Rico Chamber of Commerce for organizing such an inspiring event and congratulates Joanna Bauzá on this well-deserved recognition.
